Cookies: A cookie is a piece of data stored on the user's computer tied to information about the user such as to store visitor's preferences and to record session information.

Our Website uses cookies to enable us to serve secure pages to our users without asking them to sign in repeatedly. Most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them. If a user's system is idle for a defined time, the cookie will expire, forcing the user to sign in again to continue their session. This prevents unauthorized access to the user's information while they are away from their computer.

You may set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie, or you may choose to block cookies with your browser, but please note that if you choose to erase or block your cookies, you will need to re-enter your original user ID and password to gain access to certain parts of the Website.

We use your personal information to deliver goods and services on behalf of EMI including without limitation: fulfilling your order; providing customer service; notifying you about new products, promotions, or announcements, and otherwise supporting your use of the Website. EMI reserves the right to contact you regarding matters relevant to the underlying service provided and/or the information collected. We may share personally identifiable or other information with EMI's subsidiaries, divisions, and affiliates.

EMI may disclose personal information we have collected if compelled by law or court order and in special cases where we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be violating our Terms and Conditions of Use or may be causing injury or interference with our rights, property, our customers or anyone who could be harmed by such activities.

WE ARE NOT LIABLE OR RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE OR OTHER INFORMATION YOU CHOOSE TO SUBMIT IN PUBLICLY ACCESSIBLE AREAS OF THE WEBSITE.

You will receive advance notice if your personally identifiable information might be provided to any third party for any reason other than as set forth in this Privacy Policy, and you will have an opportunity to request that we not share such information.

While no computer system is completely secure, we believe the measures we have implemented reduce the likelihood of security problems to a level appropriate to the type of data involved.
